★ Customer compliment:

Three employees found a way to help me locate my car that I mistakenly parked in an area I was not supposed to be. They sensed my anxiety as I was in a hurry to pick up my son and his wife, and my three and four-year-old grandchildren coming in from Florida. I wanted to give a tip which they said they could not accept so I want them to at least be recognized for their gentle and caring way of treating me. Please express thanks to them again. What could have been a terrible experience became a pleasant one for me. Their names are: Elviar Harvel, Bob Mundahl and Cindy Stevenson. If you see them, please relay my greatest appreciation. Thank you!
