Customer compliment:

I want to thank the great women and men of the MSP Airport Police. On Easter morning, I accidentally returned a Hertz rental car into the Budget return area. I found that the only way out of Budget would have been to run over Tiger spikes and flatten tires. I didn't know what to do, so I decided to call Airport Police. I spoke with Sharon, who took basic info and stated she would see what she could do. The very next morning, I received a phone message from Sharon and her co-worker who was on duty. She said Mike and another Officer were going to check it out. Within 4 hrs, Hertz contacted me and stated they were in possession of the car and they would be closing my contract. I just want to say, THANK YOU, and I'll always remember what you did for me. I have the greatest respect for you Men and Women.
You are my HEROES!
