GOOD 2 KNOW

- The Air Transport Research Society (ATRS) has awarded Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport (MSP) its 2013 Airport Efficiency Excellence Award. The award recognizes MSP as the most efficiently managed large airport in North America.
"While the Metropolitan Airports Commission and MSP International Airport receive many awards, I am particularly proud of this one because it so clearly reflects our Minnesota values: operating a safe, welcoming, no-nonsense facility that is as big on amenities and services as it is short on waste and ostentation," said Metropolitan Airports Commission Executive Director/CEO Jeff Hamiel.
- Electric vehicle charging stations are now available in the parking ramps of both terminals. There are four charging stations on level 7 of the Orange ramp at Terminal 2-Humphrey; and at Terminal 1-Lindbergh there are five charging stations on level 8 of both the Blue and Red ramps. No fee is charged to use the stations, above that of the regular general parking fees. Inbound roadway signs now display an electric vehicle icon to help direct customers to the correct charging locations.
